The March minutes were approved as written.

The committee voted to approve Sarah Barham as an alternate.

Old Business

Town News

Craig stated that the town is in the middle of the budget process as they look at the needs of the community.

Town Council members attended the North Carolina coastal government meeting. Eight coastal counties were represented. The new North Carolina Commissioner of Insurance will look at concerns regarding coastal insurance policies.

Update on volunteer booth at 70th Anniversary Celebration

Craig will run the volunteer booth at the 70th Anniversary Celebration. He will explain the many roles volunteers play in the community.

Rental Updates

Nikki passed out a list of all the rental classes and events.

Repairs on the outside wood of the community center are complete.

70th Anniversary Celebration update

Nikki is working on scheduling volunteers for the town booth. She passed out notecards and posters that will be for sale at the event. Several bands and 54 booths are scheduled.

Kathleen has scheduled several presenters to speak at the Community Center along with displays of vintage bathing suits and classic cars.

Update on plaque for Ron Griffin

The plaque is complete and was shown to the committee members. Presentation of the plaque is scheduled for 5:00 pm Saturday, April 29 at the Community Center. Family members and line dancers will be contacted about the presentation. Kathleen will contact the Island Gazette and this presentation will be added to the schedule of events.

Update on landscaping in front of KB Welcome Sign

The existing plants have been removed and new shrubbery planted. The committee thanks the town for the prompt response to our concerns.

New Business

Mandy presented many ideas for future spring/summer projects at the community center. She will send these ideas to Robin and they will be discussed at the October meeting.

Several members volunteered to an afternoon work session at the community center on Wednesday, April 12. The parking lot median strip needs to be weeded and mulched. New flowers are also needed for the large entrance flowerpots.

The meeting adjourned at 10:30 am.
