

Holiday Whoobie Whatty Sponsorship Opportunities

The Kure Beach Recreation Department presents the 3rd annual Kure Beach Holiday Whoobie Whatty event on Friday, December 15th from 6:30-8:30 PM at the Ocean Front Park in downtown Kure Beach. This event is free to attend, however monetary and food donations for the local food bank will be accepted if attendees are in a position to give.

The Holiday Whoobie Whatty is a night of Grinch-y goodness. Attendees can pose in the photo booth with the Grinch himself, show off their artistic side with cookie decorating and crafts, don some Grinch-inspired face paint, and enjoy free snacks while watching How the Grinch Stole Christmas (2000).

The Holiday Whoobie Whatty was an instant hit and gains popularity each year, doubling in size from year one to year two. Anticipating another record breaking year, the Recreation Department is seeking local businesses/organizations interested in offering support. Sponsorship opportunities are available for the various elements of the event and volunteers are needed on the day of the event. Contact parks@tokb.org if interested!
