Kure Beach CARES Program

Caring About
Residents Everyday Safety

The Kure Beach Police Department is dedicated to calling individuals who are home bound, senior citizens, living alone, or would otherwise benefit from receiving a phone call to check on their wellbeing.

How Does it Work?

The Kure Beach Police Department is committed to keeping its community and residents safe. The Kure Beach CARES program is designed to provide periodic wellness checks on residents.

A Police Officer with the Kure Beach Police Department will call the resident on a predetermined day to check on their well being.

If the Officer is unable to make contact after three attempts on that day, the Officer will drive out to the listed address to make contact with the individual.

In the event of an medical emergency the residents emergency contact will be notified.

What are the Benefits/ Highlights of the CARES program?

- Reduce unwarranted fear of crime
- Updates on community events
- Emergency/ Hurricane Preparedness
- Wellness checks
- Assist with crime prevention information
- Keep lines of communication open between the community and Law Enforcement
